A COMPLETE LEARNING SOLUTION FOR YOUR DESKTOP APPLICATIONS

Leverage your software investment with our complete collection of Desktop Application courses and resources. Regardless of the job role, department, schedule, or learning style, this collection provides the training and tools to improve productivity and make your staff more efficient and effective. From the novice to the advanced user, this collection will sharpen skills and enhance user ability. The courses and resources in this collection address popular desktop operating systems and general office applications, including Microsoft Office Suite, Open Office, Windows, MAC OS, Lotus Smart Suite, Crystal Reports, Quickbooks, and more. Additionally, many of our courses are available in a variety of world languages.

A COMPREHENSIVE COLLECTION FOR THE MOST POPULAR APPLICATIONS

Desktop Application courses and resources for creating spreadsheets, memos, presentations, emails, and more—all in one library.

AWARD-WINNING COURSE DEVELOPMENT AND DELIVERY

This collection of rich, engaging courses supports multiple levels and versions of the most popular applications to address the training needs of your staff. Business professionals and support personnel will benefit from the broad range of desktop applications training featured in this collection. Ideal for application rollouts, individual career development, cross-training, and “Just-in-Time” problem solving - this library affords the highest degrees of utility and flexibility.

A MULTI-FORMAT, MULTI-PUBLISHER RESOURCE COLLECTION

Our versatile Resource collection offers the convenience of full-text, searchable books, articles, and case studies to enhance your training programs. “Teach yourself” books help guide the independent learner, while references packed with step-by-step, task-specific content help time-pressed personnel. These multiple formats allow for maximum flexibility in meeting the needs of the learner and fitting within the training plan of each individual.
